

Riverside National Tenants and Residents Federation Conference Chester March 23, 2012

Healthy Homes – Healthy People

On 23 March 2012, at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Chester, a national conference for Riverside's tenants and residents will be held so that you can tell us what you think of our services. The Riverside Tenants and Residents Federation is organising this event. Following extensive consultations "Healthy Homes – Healthy people" was agreed as a theme for the conference.

Health in the widest sense of the word covers a huge range of issues and there will be workshops on topics such as:

- How to keep your house warm without spending the earth
- How to cook a meal that tastes good but doesn't cost a fortune
- The impact of government Housing reforms
- Have I got News for You
- How to stop stress ruining your life

National speakers will include Carol Highton whose campaign against loan sharks – The Brian Shields Trust – has achieved national prominence and success. Speakers on current plans to change housing, welfare and benefit laws and regulations have been invited. The conference will be an opportunity for tenants across Riverside to meet and exchange ideas and to meet Riverside's new Chief Executive, Carol Matthews.

The conference is free of charge to all Riverside tenants and residents and travel costs will be covered. All Riverside tenants and residents can apply to attend this conference. If you would like to submit an expression of interest* in attending please e mail your request to craig.stubbs@riverside.org.uk, or write to:
