

Our commitment to you

You will keep the same security of tenure, with tenancy agreements and rent levels staying the same

You will receive a decant and home loss payment to assist with moving and disturbance

Riverside will consult with you throughout the redevelopment journey, ensuring that you are able to give feedback on design proposals

Riverside will provide you with an Independent Tenant Advisory (ITA) service chosen by you

We will ensure that your temporary move off site is as short as possible and we will keep you updated on progress throughout the build

Riverside will provide you with a temporary home in the local area which meets your housing need, with your rent levels staying the same
