1. Purpose

Riverside are committed to ensuring that properties are offered to potential customers, the majority of whom are unable to compete on the open market, in an efficient, customer focused and timely manner. The policy also aims to help us make the best use of our housing stock to achieve mixed, sustainable communities.

Riverside aims to ensure that applicants can access clear information on how to apply and obtain housing and the services and standards they can expect from us.

Riverside has housing stock over a large geographical area, located in many local authority areas. There are a variety of arrangements for the allocation of properties, in line with Section 106 Agreements, local lettings plans and nomination agreements with Local Authorities. Riverside will seek to co-operate with local authorities strategic housing functions in line with the Regulator of Social Housing Standards and the general requirement on the Registered Provider to assist local authorities to discharge their statutory duties (section 170 Housing Act 1996)

2. Scope

This policy applies to lettings of General Needs (England) and Retirement Living Intermediate, Social and Affordable Rent homes. It does not apply to Supported Housing Schemes and Care Services, Market Rent and Shared Ownership homes, or garages.
