Digital Inclusion Support in North Liverpool

National Organisations

Job Centre Support

Connectivity provider TalkTalk is rolling out a new voucher scheme that gives jobseekers across the UK free access to high-quality broadband. The programme, offered in partnership with the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP), aims to tackle digital exclusion and remove barriers to employment across the UK.

Your work coach will be able to help support you to access further information

Social Tariffs

Internet access at home can be expensive, some broadband providers offer social tariffs – broadband and phone packages at a reduced price for people claiming Universal Credit, Pension Credit as well as some other benefits. Some providers call them ‘essential’ or ‘basic’ broadband.

Visit www.ofcom.org.uk and search social tariffs to find out more.

The Department for Education

The Department For Education offers free qualifications and provides access to free, high-quality provision to equip them with the essential digital skills they need for life and work.

To be eligible for full funding under the entitlement:

- Be a UK resident
- Aged 19 and over
- Do not have the essential digital skills required to operate effectively in work and day to day life
